From Father:

As we gather this Sunday, our hearts are filled with gratitude and reflection. This week, we celebrate the Fourth of July, a day when we remember the birth of our nation and the freedoms we hold dear.

The Gospel reading for today beautifully complements this celebration, reminding us of the power of faith and the deep connections between our spiritual and civic lives. In today's Gospel, we encounter Jesus performing two miraculous healings. Jairus, a synagogue official, pleads with Jesus to heal his dying daughter. Along the way, a woman suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years reaches out in faith and is healed by merely touching Jesus' cloak. Both Jairus and the woman demonstrate profound faith, believing in Jesus' power to heal and bring new life. Their stories remind us that faith is a powerful force, capable of overcoming despair and transforming lives. As we reflect on these miracles, we can draw parallels to our love for our country. Just as Jairus and the woman approached Jesus with hope and trust, we too must approach our nation with a spirit of hope and dedication.

The Fourth of July is not just a celebration of our independence; it is a reminder of the values that our country was founded upon—freedom, justice, and the pursuit of happiness. Our love for our country calls us to participate actively in its betterment. Like the faith of Jairus and the woman, our patriotism must be rooted in a desire for the common good, for justice, and for peace. As Catholics, our faith informs our civic responsibilities. We are called to be agents of change, to advocate for the dignity of every person, and to work towards a society that reflects the love and justice of God.

In celebrating our nation's independence, let us remember the sacrifices made by those who came before us. Let us honor their legacy by committing ourselves to building a nation where freedom truly means justice for all. Our faith teaches us that true freedom is found in serving others, in standing up for what is right, and in loving our neighbor.

On this Fourth of July, let us pray for our country. Let us ask God to guide our leaders, to protect those who serve in our armed forces, and to bless all citizens with the courage to live out our faith in the public square. May we be inspired by the example of Jairus and the woman, whose faith brought healing and new life. And may we work tirelessly to ensure that our nation remains a beacon of hope and freedom for all.

Oremus pro invicem,
Fr. O'Donald

What is the National Eucharistic Revival?

The revival is the joyful, expectant, grassroots response of the Church in the United States to the divine invitation to be united around the source and summit of our faith, in the celebration of the Eucharist. Through the Eucharist, God desires to heal, to renew, and to unify the Church.

Across the country, the 4 routes of the National Eucharistic Pilgrimage will converge on July 16 at Indianapolis for the 10th National Eucharistic Congress that will be from 17-21 July (the 9th congress was held 83 years ago!)
