From Father:

As we gather this Easter Sunday, we stand at the pinnacle of our liturgical journey, a time that encapsulates the core of our faith and the essence of our hope. Today, we celebrate the Resurrection of Our Lord Jesus Christ, an event that not only signifies the climax of the liturgical year but also invites us to delve into the most sacred mysteries of our faith.

The Resurrection is not merely a historical event that we remember; it is a reality that we live. It marks the victory of life over death, love over hatred, and light over darkness. This glorious day reminds us of the limitless love of God, a love so profound that it triumphed over the grave.

As we reflect on the sacred mysteries, let us allow the power of the Resurrection to truly take effect in our lives. The Resurrection calls us to a new way of living, a life marked by hope, joy, and a renewed commitment to follow Christ. It invites us to roll away the stones of despair, doubt, and fear that entomb us, to step into the light of Christ's love.

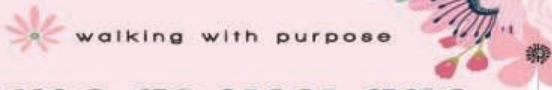

This Easter, let us embrace the transformation that the Resurrection offers. Let us allow our lives to be a testament to the power of God's love, a beacon of hope to those who are lost, and a source of comfort to those who are suffering. In doing so, we become active participants in the sacred mystery of Easter, living witnesses to the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

As we celebrate this day, let us remember that Easter is not just one day but a season, and indeed, a way of life. May the joy of the Resurrection fill your hearts and homes this Easter season and always. May we carry the light of Christ with us, spreading His love and peace in our community and beyond.

Christ is risen! He is risen indeed! Alleluia!

Christus surrēxit! Surrēxit vere, Alleluia!

Oremus pro invicem,
Fr. O'Donald
