From Father:

This Sunday, we gather to celebrate Scout Sunday, an occasion that holds a special place in the heart of our parish community. It's a day where we recognize the young individuals in our congregation who have committed themselves to the principles of Scouting—a commitment that mirrors the core values of our faith: service, community, and virtuous life.

Scouting, at its very essence, is about learning through service. It teaches our youth the importance of giving back, not just in grand gestures, but through everyday acts of kindness and responsibility. As Scouts, they pledge to help other people at all times, embodying the Christian call to love and serve our neighbors. This ethos aligns seamlessly with the teachings of our faith, where service is not just an act, but a way of living.

As we celebrate Scout Sunday, let us all be inspired by the dedication and enthusiasm of our Scouts. May their commitment to service and community remind us of our own call to be servants of God and caretakers of our world. Let us pray for their continued growth, for the strength to uphold their noble ideals, and for the wisdom to lead by example, just as Christ taught us.

In this spirit, let us join together this Scout Sunday to appreciate and encourage the young individuals who, through Scouting, are not only learning valuable life skills but are also embodying the Christian virtues of service, fellowship, and compassion. May their light shine brightly as a beacon of hope and inspiration within our parish and beyond.

"Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven." (Matthew 5:16)

*Oremus pro invicem,
Fr. O'Donald*
