From Father:

We have gone, step by step, in the course of the liturgical year, from the consideration of the mysteries of the life of Jesus to the contemplation of the Blessed Trinity. Jesus, our Mediator, our Way, has taken us by the hand and led us to the Trinity; and today it seems as though the three Persons Themselves wish to take us back to Jesus, considered in His Eucharist. “No man cometh to the Father but by Me” (John 14:6), Jesus said, and He added, “No man can come to Me except the Father... draw him” (John 6:44). This is the journey of the Christian soul: from Jesus to the Father, to the Trinity; from the Trinity, from the Father, to Jesus. Jesus brings us to the Father, the Father draws us to Jesus. The Church, who like a good Mother, knows that our spiritual life cannot subsist without Jesus, leads us to Him, really and truly present in the Most Holy Sacrament of the altar.

The solemnity of the Corpus Domini [Body of the Lord] is not just the simple memorial of an historical event which took place at the Last Supper; it recalls us to the ever-present reality of Jesus always living in our midst. We can say, in truth, that He has not “left us orphans,” but has willed to remain permanently with us, in the integrity of His Person in the fullness of His humanity and His divinity. In the Eucharist, Jesus is really Emmanuel, God with us.- excerpts from Divine Intimacy

One of my goals in the next year is to revamp our adoration chapel. Adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament is one of the most intimate ways in which we can pray. We are placed in God’s presence and are there to adore Him and welcome Him into our lives, removing any fear of God being distant but radically inviting Him into our day. I hope to purchase an Exposition tabernacle that would safely and securely allow the Blessed Sacrament to be seen and adored. I also hope to increase the hours in which the adoration chapel is open to the faithful so people can stop in for a visit when they are in need of His Presence.

Oremus pro invicem, Fr. O’Donald
