From Father:

As we approach the end of the liturgical year, the Church invites us to reflect on the reality of eternal life and the preparation of our souls for that journey. One important way we, as Catholics, prepare for this transition is through what is traditionally called the "Last Rites."

What Are the Last Rites?

The term "Last Rites" encompasses several sacramental actions designed to bring spiritual comfort and grace to a person nearing the end of their earthly life. These include:

- Anointing of the Sick: This sacrament offers physical and spiritual healing, strength, and courage. It unites the suffering of the sick person with Christ's redemptive suffering.
- Confession: The opportunity to reconcile with God through the sacrament of penance, seeking forgiveness for sins.
- Holy Communion (Viaticum): The "bread of life" for the journey, offering spiritual nourishment and the presence of Christ as the soul prepares to meet Him.
- Apostolic Pardon: A special prayer of absolution granting remission of the temporal punishment due to sin.

The Role of the Anointing of the Sick

The Anointing of the Sick is often misunderstood. While it is sometimes administered in a person's final hours, its purpose is broader. The sacrament is intended to bring healing and peace during serious illness or the natural aging process, and it is most effective when received earlier—weeks or even months before death. We can receive Anointing of the Sick when there is any danger of death either from illness or old age.

When Should You Call?

As the only priest in residence here at Epiphany of Our Lord, I encourage families to call the rectory sooner rather than later if a loved one is seriously ill or facing declining health. This ensures I can come in time to administer these sacred sacraments and pray with the individual and their family. Waiting until the last moments may mean missing the opportunity to provide the full measure of grace and comfort these rites offer.

Sacramental Presence

The Last Rites remind us that, in life's most vulnerable moments, Christ's presence is real and tangible through the sacraments. These prayers and sacraments provide profound peace and hope for the journey ahead. Let us all keep this ministry of mercy in mind for ourselves and our loved ones

Oremus pro invicem,
Fr. O'Donald

World Youth Day

World Youth Day 2024 will take place on Sunday, Nov. 24. The theme for the 39th World Youth Day is "Those who hope in the Lord will run and not be weary" (Is 40:31). Pope Francis chose the theme to invite young people to deepen their understanding of Christian hope, witness that Christ is alive, and rekindle hope in the world.

2025 Parish Pastoral Council Nomination Process is Now Open

When announcing the 2025 Jubilee Year of Hope, Pope Francis encouraged us all to “fan the flame of hope that has been given to us and help everyone to gain new strength and certainty, looking into the future with an open spirit, a trusting heart and far sighted vision.” Our community is creating a new Parish Pastoral Council designed to help accomplish these goals right here at Epiphany Of Our Lord.

This is an opportunity to work closely with our pastor and plan the future of our parish. Do you know someone who could help our parish fan the flame of Hope? Do you yourself seek to help Epiphany Of Our Lord look to the future with an open spirit, trusting heart, and farsighted vision? If so, please consider nominating yourself or a fellow parishioner to help our community grow in faith and service.

Over the next few weeks, we are accepting nominations for our reconstituted Parish Pastoral Council. There are several ways to nominate potential council members:

- Ballot Box, nominee cards placed in the pews and written nominations can be deposited in the ballot box in the church vestibule.
- Call the rectory with your nominations at 610-828-8634
- Email nominations to ppc@epiphanyofourlord.com
- In Person. You're always welcome to stop by the rectory and give your nomination in person.

The nomination process will take place Nov. 10 thru Nov. 24.

If possible, please include contact information for the parishioners (up to three nominees) you nominate. Once nominations are closed, all nominees will be asked if they are willing to serve for the six meetings per year. Further action will occur in the following weeks.

Questions? Email ppc@epiphanyofourlord.com.

As mentioned previously, these are the two free books being offered for your 2024 Advent prayer and scripture reflections. Note, there are about 300 of each book so we ask that you are considerate of our whole community when you take from the baskets.
