From Father:

On this Fifth Sunday of Easter, the Gospel reading invites us to reflect on Jesus' teaching about the true vine. In John 15:1-8, Jesus says, "I am the true vine, and my Father is the vine grower. Remain in me, as I remain in you. Just as a branch cannot bear fruit by itself unless it remains on the vine, neither can you unless you remain in me."

This metaphor is a beautiful reminder of our connection to Christ and the importance of remaining close to Him. Just as branches on a vine rely on the central stem for nourishment and support, we, as followers of Jesus, draw our spiritual strength and vitality from our relationship with Him.

Being connected to the true vine is not just about our individual relationship with Jesus; it's also about our role within the broader community. As branches, we are interconnected, forming a spiritual vineyard that bears fruit for the Kingdom of God. This fruit manifests in our acts of love, service, and compassion toward one another and those in need.

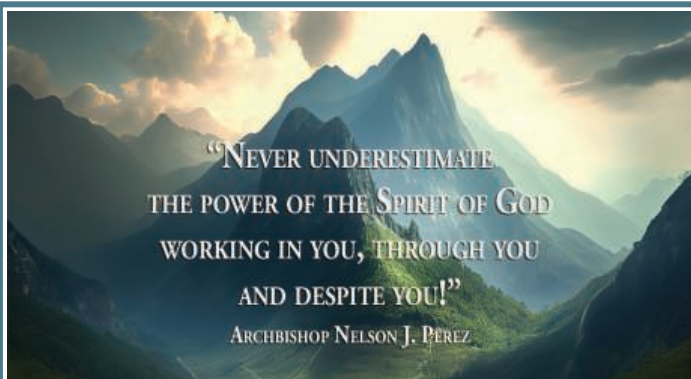

As we reflect on this Gospel passage, let's consider how we can remain firmly rooted in Christ. This involves regular prayer, participation in the sacraments, and a commitment to living out His teachings in our daily lives. It also means staying connected to our faith community, where we find encouragement and support on our journey.

This week, I invite you to think about the ways you are bearing fruit as a branch on the true vine. How can you strengthen your connection to Christ and foster deeper relationships with those around you? Consider reaching out to someone who might feel isolated or lost, offering a kind word or a helping hand.

Oremus pro invicem,
Fr. O'Donald

Note from the Pastor

I'll be away this week at the bi-annual convocation in Hersey with all of the Archdiocesan priests to discuss the archdiocese's strategic plan. I ask for your prayers as we come together to discern the best way forward for our Church. Because of the convocation, there will be no daily Mass on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday. Thank you for your understanding.

Registration is now open for Archdiocese of Philadelphia
